So where do we start?

 Its simple, the kickstarter based company "Next Thing Co" continue to hide from the public, their backers and anyone trying to purchase their products..

So should i trust this so called group? https://getchip.com

Well i suggest having a read around http://bbs.nextthing.co/ or read all the latest comments from backers on kickstarter.. https://www.kickstarter.com/projects/1598272670/dashbot-a-49-robot-for-your-dashboard

NTC - Stop Lying To People Who Paid You For A Product.

Just admit you have failed and are now trying to cover your tracks.
